

JURY WILL GET TAR PARTY CASE TO-DAY

Alleged Assaults of Young Girl Soon May Know Their Punishment.

CRIME CALLED BARBARIC

Prosecutor Is Scathing in His Arraignment of Defendants.

Lincoln Centre, Kan., November 22.—With only two more closing arguments to be delivered, it seemed probable to-night that the Mary Chamberlain "tar party" case would go to the jury to-morrow.

The testimony was completed shortly after noon to-day. A recess of two hours was then taken, while the judge prepared his instructions. Prosecutor McCanness completed his address before adjournment. He branded the tarring as barbaric, cowardly and brutal, a thing almost unbelievable in a civilized community, and demanded that the severest penalty that it was possible to inflict be meted out to her assailants.

"I regret, indeed," he said, "that our laws are so lame, our legislators so lax, that after an offense of this nature has been perpetrated we must be content to send the offenders to jail or heap on them an insignificant fine."

He declared tar and feathers to be a relic of ancient times, and dwelt on the cruelty of tarring a girl.

"Miss Chamberlain's reputation is not an issue in this case," he said, "she did that which is improper, let her be brought before the same tribunal that is trying these defendants. This girl calls for the protection of our laws and our State. It is your duty to give it to her."

"Tar and feathers: A relic of ancient times. Tarring a girl! One of our own girls, right here in the center of civilization. Why Robin Hood and his gang of desperadoes would start at such a thing. They, who made their living by highway robbery, would blush to do such a thing."

Entitled to Protection.

"I care not who Miss Chamberlain is, what she is. She may be the vilest character on top of earth, yet she is just as much entitled to the protection of our laws as if she were an angel. Even a dog deserves better treatment than was given Mary Chamberlain that night."

The defendants told the same story. They admitted knowing of the plans to "tar" Miss Chamberlain, and starting to where the crime was to be committed, but they denied having a hand in the assault.

A touch of romance was introduced when Homer Hoffick was called by the State in rebuttal. He has been friendly with Miss Chamberlain, and starting last five or six months. In fact, he said, he had been "keeping company" steadily with her.

Attorneys for the defense regarded the judge's instructions as highly favorable to their clients. The instructions were that the defendants might be found guilty of aiding and abetting

Series of Experiments Started at University of California.

Berkley, November 22.—Scientists at the University of California have interested themselves in the common problem of how to exterminate the ordinary fly. The work, which has just been started under the supervision of Professor C. W. Woodworth, one of the department of entomology, in the West, will be continued for three months. G. Wilson, of the department, has been assigned to help Professor Woodworth in the work, which includes the trying task of caging groups of flies, dosing them with insect powder, and watching the result.

Hundreds of varieties of preparations will be tested out to determine the most efficient method of disposing of the wily insect. The work will be carried on by comparing one compound against another, final results being obtained by a process of eliminating the least effective preparations. The work was begun in the laboratory following the provisions of the California insecticide law, which became effective a short time ago.

A preliminary report on the experiments conducted so far has established the fact that the elusive flea wades around with immunity in some of the best preparations which have been tried out.

65 Years Young

Does a Harder Days Work Than Ever After Stomach Trouble Vanished

Read this interesting letter:

"I suffered for many years with indigestion and rheumatism and tried many home remedies, patent medicines and doctor's prescriptions, but would only get relief."

I have friends who were cured of stomach trouble by M-I-O-N-A tablets, and this induced me to try them. I bought a box at the Home Drug Store, and after a few days I noticed a big improvement in my condition; my food would not sour on my stomach or bloat me; the stiffness seemed to leave my joints, and made me unconsciously sleep lively. My friends all spoke of how well I was looking."

I bought three more boxes of M-I-O-N-A tablets and took them exactly as directed, and I can truly say that they have made a robust young man of me. I am 65 years old, and can now do a harder day's work than in my younger days.

I hope you will publish this letter so others who suffer as I have can also be benefited."—W. S. Sneed, 1229 N. Missouri St., Indianapolis.

Will Defend Town.

Guadalupe Juarez, Mexico, November 22.—General Pascual Orozco will remain here to defend the town against any possible attack by the revolutionists. He has been under orders to go to Sinaloa but these were cancelled to-day. Orozco was Madero's chief general in the late revolution, and twice attacked Juarez.

Underwood Boomed by His Friends as Vice-Presidential Timber.

Washington, November 22.—Oscar W. Underwood for Vice-President on the Democratic ticket is the latest suggestion in national politics. The proposition is regarded as being more than "a mere mention," since it is not handicapped by being a mere suggestion, but is a serious proposition. It is not handicapped by being a mere suggestion, but is a serious proposition. It is not handicapped by being a mere suggestion, but is a serious proposition.

POSSIBLE CHOICE FOR SECOND PLACE

It has been customary in the past for each party to select the candidate for Vice-President to strengthen the ticket. In some particular section or State or to secure the support of a faction or element. In this case no such motive would govern, as the South is safely Democratic no matter who is nominated. It results, therefore, in the opinion of Mr. Underwood's friends, that talk of his nomination must be based upon appreciation of his qualities as a statesman and a man.

Regarded as Cool and Capable.

No one will deny that Mr. Underwood, through his leadership in the House during the last session, following long years of distinguished service in the minority, won sincere praise. He was pronounced a cool, capable, "level-headed" leader, and the unanimous support accorded him by the factions in the Democratic party is evidence of confidence in his quality.

Only one dissonant note has been heard in this concord of praise, and that was sounded by William J. Bryan, echoes of which are yet heard from time to time. As far as that is concerned, some of his friends say: "We love him for the enemies he has made."

It is assumed that Mr. Bryan would oppose the selection of Mr. Underwood for second place, since Mr. Bryan considers Mr. Underwood too conservative. Some Democrats say they think Governor Woodrow Wilson is a man after Mr. Bryan's own heart, and that if Woodrow Wilson is nominated for President it would strengthen the ticket to put up a "conservative" proposition.

It is known to be a fact that the most thoughtful and prominent Democrats in the councils of the party are intent upon choosing their ticket in 1912 with the greatest caution and circumspection to give the party the best chance to win.

Care in Making Choice.

They are moved to this determination, they explain, by the sincere conviction that the coming year will present their golden opportunity of success, the most promising since the first Cleveland campaign. They do not propose to destroy their prospects by unwise selection of candidates.

Some of the Democrats go on to say that they believe the eyes of the nation were upon the Democratic party and that there is a promising outlook of winning back to the Democratic ticket in 1912 the voters who have drifted away since 1896 in successive campaigns. If the Democratic candidates are wisely chosen.

THREE JOIN HANDS TO DEFEAT MADERO

Reyes, Gomez and Supita Hope to Accomplish His Overthrow.

Mexico City, November 22.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez, General Reyes and Emilio Supita have joined hands in an effort to overthrow the Madero government, according to a telegram received by the President to-day from the secret service agents of the government now in San Antonio.

Zapata has been in open rebellion since the close of the revolution. Vasquez Gomez will be arrested, in the opinion of government officials, who received such advices from their agents in the North.

At the Department of the Interior official advices were received to-day of the engagements at the Hacienda San Nicholas, Guanajuato, on Monday, in which the Federalists defeated the revolutionists under General Procel, who announced that he was fighting against the central government. The war cry of his men is "Viva Reyes."

Another insurrection is that in the neighborhood of Santiago Papasquiaro, Durango, where the rebels are reported to have been active for some time to-day, but not confirmed that they had taken the above named town.

The government's efforts to suppress Zapata, assumed some ten days ago, have altered conditions in Morelos but little. A number of engagements have been fought, in each of which Zapata's brother, Eufemio, was killed, but Zapata himself continued elusive.

At Tlalco, Morelos, yesterday the rebels had planned to rob a passenger train from Vera Cruz. Mistaking a special loaded with Federal troops for the regular train, they stopped it. The Federalists poured a hot volley from the windows into the Zapatas, who fled. Unofficially, the triumvirate—Reyes, Vasquez and Zapata—is not regarded as impracticable. Reyes is considered to be a military expert of high order; it is granted that Vasquez Gomez can count upon a number of disgruntled Maderistas through his association with them while Minister of the Interior, and already Zapata has proved formidable, both during the Madero revolution and since.

Duncan Is Satisfied.

San Antonio, Texas, November 22.—Brigadier-General J. W. Duncan, commanding the Department of Texas, returned to-day from Laredo entirely satisfied with the way the "revolutionary" situation is being handled.

Noah Allen, of Brownsville, assistant district attorney for the Southern District, will remain in San Antonio several days seeking additional evidence against the men already indicted at Laredo.

ready to meet any reasonable demand for troops to be used in China.

It is intimated at the State Department that it will be for the council of foreign ministers in Peking to determine whether troops are needed at all, and if so, when and in what proportion they shall be furnished by the powers interested in China.

Both the Chinese government and revolutionary leaders are desperately alarmed at the possibility of foreign intervention in their struggle. Probably it is owing to the appeals reaching the ministers from these sources to keep foreign troops out of China to avoid precipitating a possible massacre of all foreigners at unprotected points, that the foreign ministers are hesitating to give the word for the landing of their troops.

Funds Are Cut Off.

Denver, Col., November 22.—Fourteen Chinese students at the Golden Schools of Mines have received notice from the Chinese legation that the revolution makes it necessary to discontinue payments from the Boxer indemnity fund for their education. The students have only $100 among them.

Aviator Seeks Service.

San Francisco, November 22.—Tom Gunn, one of the few Chinese who operate aeroplanes, is here negotiating with revolutionary leaders to send him to China to do aeroplane scout work in the fight against the Manchus. Gunn uses a machine of his own construction.

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

For sale by all leading druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.
